 - (b) a period not exceeding one year from the date of issue.
- (7) Travel Document issued to a refugee shall be valid for travel to all countries except the country of the holder's nationality and shall be valid for a period of five years.

27. Application for and issuance of passports and other travel documents

(1) An application for issuance or replacement of a passport or other travel document shall be in the prescribed form.

(2) A person who wishes to apply for a passport shall appear in person before an immigration officer and make an application in the prescribed manner:

Provided that in special circumstance the Director may use his discretion to dispense with personal appearance.

- (3) An application made under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by—
 - (a) the birth certificate or adoption certificate of the applicant;
 - (b) the national identity card of the applicant; or
 - (c) a certificate of registration or naturalization, where applicable; or
 - (d) service identity cards for members of the Defence Force;
 - (e) passport size photographs as may be determined in Regulations;
 - (f) in case of an applicant who is a child or with a disability that renders them dependent, the parent's or legal guardian's written consent; and
 - (g) the prescribed fee.
- (4) An immigration officer shall, subject to this Act, issue or replace passports and other travel documents to any applicant.

(5) A passport or a travel document issued under this Act shall contain information prescribed by the Cabinet Secretary.

28. Application for replacement of a passport and other travel document

(1) Where the holder of a passport or other travel document requires a replacement of the passport or travel document or wishes to change the particulars in the passport or travel document, the holder shall apply in the prescribed manner.

(2) An application made under subsection (1) shall not be considered unless accompanied by the passport or travel document that is being held by the applicant.

(3) Upon issuance of a new passport or travel document the previously issued passport or travel document shall be cancelled.

29. Lost, stolen mutilated or damaged passport

(1) Where a passport or travel document is lost or stolen, the holder shall report the loss or theft to the nearest police station and immigration office or if outside the country, to the nearest Kenya mission.

(2) The immigration officer shall upon receiving information of the loss or theft of the passport or travel document, notify all immigration offices, Kenya missions abroad and other relevant authorities, of the loss or theft of the passport or travel document.

(3) Any person whose passport or travel document is lost, stolen, mutilated or damaged may apply for replacement, in the prescribed form and pay the prescribed fee.

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration or a sworn affidavit of the circumstances surrounding the loss, theft, mutilation or damage of the passport or travel document.

(5) The immigration officer may, where a passport or travel document is lost, stolen, mutilated or damaged outside Kenya, issue or cause to be issued a passport or travel document upon the applicant complying with the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) as far as is reasonably possible.

30. Rejection of an application for a passport or other travel document

(1) An immigration officer shall reject an application for a passport or other travel document where the applicant—

- (a) is not a citizen in the case of an application for passport;
- (b) does not qualify under the provision of this Act in the case of other Travel Documents;
- (c) gives false material information for the purpose of obtaining a passport or other travel document; or
- (d) submits an incomplete application.

(2) Where an application for passport or other travel document has been rejected, the immigration officer shall within fourteen days give the reasons for rejection to an applicant, in writing.

31. Confiscation or suspension of a passport or travel document

(1) An immigration officer or any other law enforcement officer may suspend or confiscate a passport or other travel document where—

- (a) the holder permits another person to use his passport or travel document;
- (b) the holder has been deported or repatriated to Kenya at the expense of the Government;
- (c) the holder is convicted for drug trafficking, money laundering, trafficking in persons and smuggling, acts of terrorism or any other international crime;
- (d) a warrant of arrest has been issued against the holder and there is a risk of absconding;
- (e) the holder is a person against whom there is a court order restricting movement or authorizing denial, confiscation, or suspension of the passport or travel document;
- (f) the holder is involved in passport or document fraud, passport or document forgery or transnational crimes; and
- (g) it is necessary to examine the passport or travel document for a period not exceeding seven days.
- (h) subject to the Constitution, any other circumstances which in the opinion of the Director would be prejudicial to the interest of the State or holder of the passport.

(2) The immigration officer shall, on suspending or confiscating the passport or travel document in accordance with subsection (1), inform the holder, in writing, within seven days, citing the reason, and may require him to surrender the passport or travel document.

(3) Upon being served with a notice under subsection (2), the holder shall within twenty one days of service, surrender the passport or travel document to the nearest immigration office or an authorized agent.

(4) Where the holder of a passport or travel document fails to surrender the passport or travel document as required under subsection (3), it shall become null and void after the expiry of twenty one days from the date of service of the notice to surrender the passport or travel document.

(5) A person who is aggrieved by the decision to suspend or confiscate their passport may, within fourteen days of the receipt of written notice of such suspension or confiscation, file an appeal to the High Court.

[Act No. 19 of 2014, s. 77.]

32. Passports and travel documents to be evidence of citizenship and domicile.

(1) A passport shall be prima-facie evidence of the citizenship or domicile of the holder, as the case may be, and of their entitlement to state protection.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), possession of a passport or travel document does not bar inquiry, investigation or judicial proceedings pertaining to the validity of the passport.

- (f) the person has violated provisions of this Act;
- (g) the person acquired the permanent residence status by fraud, false representation or concealment of any material fact;
- (h) the person has during any war in which Kenya was engaged unlawfully traded or communicated with an enemy or been engaged in or associated with any business that was knowingly carried on in such a manner as to assist an enemy in that war;
- (i) the person has within five years after acquiring permanent residence status been convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of three years or longer; and
- (j) if the person domiciled outside the country continuously for a period of two years unless they were previously citizens by birth.

[Act No. 19 of 2014, s. 79.]

40. Issuance of permits

(1) In this section—

“Committee” means the permits determination committee appointed by the Cabinet Secretary.

(2) An application for a permit shall be made to the Director in the prescribed manner.

(3) The Director shall issue a permit of the required class to a person who is not a prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person, who has—

- (a) made an application in the prescribed manner before entry into Kenya; and
- (b) satisfied the Committee that he has met the requirements relating to the particular class of permit.

(4) The Director shall issue or revoke a permit on recommendations of the Committee.

(5) The Committee shall have power to request for additional information and where necessary, summon the applicants, require production of production supporting documents.

(6) The Director shall, within fourteen days of receipt of recommendations of the Committee, cause to be issued a permit to an applicant who so applies and qualifies.

(7) Where the Director is of the opinion that the issue of permits to an applicant is not in the interest of the country or for any other sufficient reason, the Director may upon giving reasons, in writing, to both the applicant and the Committee—

- (a) refer the matter back to the Committee for further consideration; or
- (b) decline to issue the permit to the applicant.

(8) Where the application has been referred back to the Committee, the Committee shall, within fourteen days, make its findings to the Director and such findings shall be limited to the reasons given for the referral.

(9) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Committee shall regulate its own procedures.

(10) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision made under this section may appeal to the High Court.

[Act No. 19 of 2014, s. 80.]

41. Invalidation of a work or residence permit

(1) Where a permit has been issued to a person, and that person—

- (a) fails, without the written approval of the Director, to engage within ninety days of the date of issue of the permit or of that person's entry into Kenya, whichever is the earlier, in the employment, occupation, trade, business or profession in respect of which the permit was issued or take up residence;
- (b) ceases to engage in the said employment, occupation, trade, business or profession; or
- (c) engages in any employment, occupation, trade business or profession, whether or not for remuneration or profit, other than the employment, occupation, trade, business or profession referred to in paragraph (a),

the permit shall cease to be valid and the presence of that person in Kenya shall be unlawful, unless otherwise authorized under this Act.

- (d) has violated any of the terms of his or her stay under the permit;
- (e) has violated any of the provisions of this Act or Regulations made under it;
- (f) has been declared a prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person;
- (g) has become an undesirable immigrant;

- (h) acquired the permit by fraud, false representation or concealment of any material fact;
- (i) has during any war in which Kenya was engaged unlawfully traded or communicated with an enemy or been engaged in or associated with any business that was knowingly carried on in such a manner as to assist an enemy in that war; and
- (j) the person has after acquiring the permit been convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of three years or longer

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, and subject to the provisions of any other written law, a person to whom a work permit of class M is issued may engage in any occupation, trade, business or profession, and sections 34, 35, and 36 shall not apply to a child of that person.

[Act No. 19 of 2014, s. 81.]

42. Permits, etc., void for fraud etc.

Any entry permit, pass, certificate or other authority, whether issued under this Act or under the repealed Acts, which has been obtained by or was issued in consequence of fraud or misrepresentation, or the concealment or nondisclosure, whether intentional or inadvertent, of any material fact or circumstance, shall be and be deemed always to have been void and of no effect and shall be surrendered to the service for cancellation.

43. Power to remove persons unlawfully present in Kenya

(1) The Cabinet Secretary may make an order in writing, directing that any person whose presence in Kenya was, immediately before the making of that order, unlawful under this Act or in respect of whom a recommendation has been made to him or her under section 26A of the Penal Code (Cap. 63), shall be removed from and remain out of Kenya either indefinitely or for such period as may be specified in the order.

(2) A person against whom an order has been made under this section shall—

- (a) be returned to the place where he originated from, or with the approval of the Cabinet Secretary, to a place in the country of habitual residence, permanent residence or citizenship, or to any place to which he consents to be taken if the competent authorities or government of that place consents to admit him or her to the country; or
- (b) if the cabinet secretary so directs, be kept and remain in police custody, prison or immigration holding facility or until his departure from Kenya, and while so kept is deemed to be in lawful custody whether or not he has commenced any legal proceedings in court challenging the Tribunals decision until the suit is finally disposed of.

(3) Subject to this section, an order under this section shall be carried out in such manner as the Cabinet Secretary may direct, subject to the Constitution and related laws.

(4) Any order made or directions given under this section may at any time be varied or revoked by the Cabinet Secretary by a further order, in writing.

(5) In the case of a person who arrives in Kenya illegally, the powers of the Cabinet Secretary under this section may be exercised either by the Cabinet Secretary or by an immigration officer.

(6) An order made or deemed to have been made under this section shall, for so long as it provides that the person to whom it relates shall remain out of Kenya, continue to have effect as an order for the removal from Kenya of that person whenever he is found in Kenya, and may be enforced accordingly; but nothing in this subsection shall prevent the prosecution for an offence under this Act or any other written law of any person who returns to Kenya in contravention of such an order.

(7) Where a person is brought before a court for being unlawfully present in Kenya, and the court is informed that an application, to the Cabinet Secretary, for an order under this section has been made or is about to be made, the court may order that such person be detained for a period not exceeding fourteen days or admit the person to bail, pending a decision by the Cabinet Secretary.

44. Duties and Liabilities of carriers

(1) A person in charge of a carrier arriving from or leaving for any place outside Kenya, or the owner of or agent of the carrier, shall, furnish to an immigration officer at the first port of entry or departure a list in duplicate, signed by himself or by some person authorized to sign it on his behalf, the names of all persons in the carrier including—

- (a) details of identity of all passengers on board the carrier classified according to their respective destinations;
- (b) a list of crew; and
- (c) such other information as the cabinet secretary may prescribe.

(2) A person in charge of a carrier about to call at any port or place outside Kenya, shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take into his custody any person in respect of which subsection (3) applies, and, on due payment, afford that person a passage to that port or place, and proper accommodation and maintenance during that passage.

(3) Where any person who is conveyed to Kenya in a carrier, is refused permission to enter Kenya on the ground that he is a prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person—

- (a) the owner of the carrier and the person in charge of the carrier which brings in a prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person shall be liable to a surcharge in the sum not exceeding Kenya shillings two hundred thousand for every such person brought into Kenya and in default of payment of the sum surcharged the carrier shall be liable to detention at the cost jointly and severally of the owner and the person in charge;
- (b) the person in charge of the carrier shall, if so required by an immigration officer, take that person into his custody and ensure that he is removed from Kenya;
- (c) the owner of the carrier and the person in charge of the carrier shall jointly and severally be liable to pay to the Government all expenses incurred by the Government in respect of the transportation, maintenance and upkeep of that person and his removal from Kenya, and the amount of such expenses shall be a civil debt recoverable summarily;

- (d) notwithstanding paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, any carrier knowingly bringing in passengers with forged documents, passengers without travel documents, passengers with documents issued to other people, passengers without return or onward ticket or passengers without visa shall be liable to a surcharge of Kenya shillings One Million for every passenger and in default of payment of the surcharge the carrier shall be liable to detention at own cost; or
- (e) notwithstanding paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, any carrier bringing in passengers in transit who are improperly documented shall be surcharged Kenya Shillings one Million per passenger failure to which the carrier may be detained at their own cost.

(4) Any person who is taken into the custody of the person in charge of a carrier pursuant to this section is deemed to be in lawful custody while he is in Kenya.

(5) An immigration officer may examine the passports or travel documents of transit passengers at any entry or exit point and take action where necessary.

(6) Where in the opinion of an immigration officer it becomes necessary to examine the travel and other documents of a passenger onboard a carrier, the person in charge of the carrier shall present upon demand by a immigration officer the passenger's travel documents or details of identity presented at the last point of departure to Kenya.

(7) An immigration officer shall have powers to detain a carrier, compel a carrier to pay such surcharge or penalties for bringing inadmissible persons into Kenya and compel the carrier to remove such persons.

[Act No. 12 of 2012, Sch.]

45. Duties and obligations of employers

(1) No person shall employ—

- (a) a foreign national who entered Kenya illegally;
- (b) a foreign national whose status does not authorize him or her to engage in employment;
- (c) a foreign national on terms, conditions or in a capacity different from those authorized in such foreign national's status.

(2) It shall be the duty of every employer to apply for and obtain a work permit or a pass conferring upon a foreign national the right to engage in employment before granting him employment and it shall be presumed that the employer knew at the time of the employment that such person was among those referred to in subsection (1).

(3) An employer employing a foreign national shall—

- (a) for two years after the termination of such employment of the non-national, keep the prescribed records relating thereto; and
- (b) file a report with the Service in the prescribed manner in respect of—
 - (i) foreign nationals under his employment; or
 - (ii) any breach on the side of the foreign national's employment.

(4) If there is credible evidence that the foreign national who entered Kenya illegally is found on any premises where a business is conducted, conducting himself in such a manner as to suggest that he is in employment within the premises, it shall be presumed that such illegal foreign national was employed by the person who has control over such premises, unless evidence to the contrary is provided

(5) For the purposes of this section a person who performs for the benefit of or at the request of another person any work or service of a kind which is commonly performed by a person in employment, is deemed to engage in an employment, and that other person is considered to employ that person.

(6) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence.

46. Learning institutions

(1) A learning institution and a person in charge of a learning institution providing training or instruction shall before admitting a person for purposes of training or instruction ensure that a person is not—

- (a) a foreign national who is in the country illegally;
- (b) a foreign national whose status does not authorize him or her to receive such training or instruction by such person; or
- (c) a foreign national on terms or conditions in a capacity different from those authorized in such foreign national status.

(2) Any person, being in charge of learning institution, who allows a student who is required under this Act to obtain a student's pass to attend such institution before such student is in possession of a student's pass, commits an offence.

(3) If any person referred to in subsection (1) is found undertaking or receiving training or instruction on any premises where instruction or training is provided, it shall be presumed that such person was allowed to receive instruction or training by, the person who has control over such premises, unless contrary is proved.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to persons holding refugee status residing in designate refugee camps.

[Act No. 12 of 2012, Sch.]

47. Accommodation

(1) Any business or person offering accommodation shall require all its customers to produce identification documents pertaining to their citizenship before admission.

(2) Any business offering accommodation shall maintain a record of all its customers who are foreign nationals in the prescribed manner and shall make weekly returns to the Director.

(2A) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Director may at any time request for submission of the records of all customers who are foreign nationals.

(3) Where subsection (2) is not complied with and an illegal foreign national is found on any premises referred to in that subsection, it shall be presumed that such illegal foreign national was harbored by the person who has control over such premises, unless evidence to the contrary is provided.

(4) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence.

[Act No. 19 of 2014, s. 82.]

48. Powers of immigration Officer

(1) Subject to and for the purposes of this Act an immigration officer shall have the power to—

- (a) board, or enter, and search any carrier or premises in Kenya;
- (b) require any person seeking to enter Kenya to answer any question or to produce any document in his possession for the purpose of ascertaining whether that person is or is not a citizen of Kenya and, in the case of any person who is not a citizen of Kenya, for the purpose of determining whether that person should be permitted to enter Kenya under this Act;
- (c) require any person seeking to enter or leave Kenya other than a refugee or any asylum seeker, to produce to him a valid passport or a valid travel document and any form of declaration that may be prescribed;
- (d) require any person seeking to enter Kenya to submit to examination by a medical practitioner; or
