

SHORT COURSE TRAINING ON AFFORDABLE HOUSING SOLUTIONS

Introduction

Affordable housing is a key goal in Kenya. It is a part of the Government's Agenda 4 short term goal of Vision 2030. It will also contribute to UN Agenda on SDG's particularly Goals 9 on Resilient infrastructure and 11 on Sustainable Cities and Human Settlements as well as Africa Agenda 2063 Goals, particularly Modern and Liveable Habitats.

Target persons:

Foremen, Artisans, Craftsmen, and those with basic construction skills.

Topics to be covered:

1. Material characteristics and selection for affordable housing Interlocking Stabilized Soil Blocks (ISSB), rammed earth and Expanded Polystyrene (EPS) construction systems
2. Batching of materials and production of ISSB & rammed earth panels
3. Construction of walls & panels using ISSB, rammed earth, and EPS
4. Safety and maintenance in the use of the ISSB Block press and other equipment

Training cost per person	: Kshs. 25,000/=
Payment Deadline	: 22 nd June, 2022
Bank	: ABSA Bank Kenya, PLC Juja Branch
A/C NO	: 0721058123
Duration of Training	: 5 days (27th - 1st July, 2022)
Venue	: JKUAT Main Campus

For more information, Contact : smartec@jkuat.ac.ke (Dr. Eng. Charles Kabubo +254 722 825 927) principal@eng.jkuat.ac.ke

Organized by the Sustainable Materials Research and Technology Centre (SMARTEC) and Engineering Workshops of the College of Engineering and Technology (COETEC)

